

June 1, 2021 Visit

I was awakened in my bedroom last night by the sound of my new puppy barking and running around in the office. "What the hell is she up to?" I said to myself as I got out of bed to go check on her. The first thing I noticed as I left the bedroom was that there was a light coming from the office. I told myself, "I know I turned off the light in the office before I went to bed." As I left the bedroom and rounded the corner, I could see there was more to the light in the office than I thought. I could see Michael standing in there playing with the dog. It looked to me that the dog was having a really good time. As I walked towards the office, I addressed Michael by saying, "I know you didn't just come to play with the dog. I was wondering when you'd pay me another visit with the conference being as close as it is."

Michael... You have chosen wisely with this puppy. She will grow to be a fine dog and will serve you well. Now we must speak of other things. Blessed are you and blessed are the masters who will stand with you at the conference this year. It is important that you do this year that what you were supposed to do last year. Do you still remember that which I gave you to do last year to bring the world back to sanity?

Yes, I remember the process you gave me last year so we're going to be using that as the focus for this year.

Michael... Yes. You've lost a whole year and look at where the world and your country is today.

Well, I must say it's gotten really crazy over the past year. Is that because we weren't able to do the process at the conference last year?

Michael... That was a bath your World was in and yet there was no one there to intercede in what was about to take place. The masters could've made a difference had you had the conference last year. How many times must I remind you? The masters are very powerful when they are together and can create a vibration to be at cause.

Well that brings me to a point I want to talk to you about. I've had some people wanting me to do a video for the people who aren't there. Now I've decided to do a video for those that can't make it when I teach about tuning forks and when Rick is teaching about the oils. However, some people want me to video the whole conference I told them I didn't think that would be a good idea.

One person told me that yes, it would be a good idea and that you were communicating with them Michael, and that they were going to translate what you had to say for me. I told them if Michael wants to talk to me he knows where I live and he can come tell me. So, they told me that I should ask you what you think about doing this video for the people who aren't there.

Michael... You were wise in what you told them. That which is done during the conference is a sacred ceremony and can only be done at the conference. This can only be done by those that are present. It is not something to watch.

I know what you're saying. The masters are like a championship team and they can get on the field and play but they're not much used to watching it on TV or on a computer. Although their hearts may be in the right place, they need to get on the field and be in their power. I think this is going to be a very good conference. Rick is going to be teaching the Sacred Oils, I'm going to be teaching tuning forks and Laurell is going to be teaching nutrition. A lot of knowledge will be given to the group and it's going to be fun. We have a little over 80 people already registered and we may make it to 90 or 100 by the time the conference gets here.

Michael... Much can be done with that number of masters standing together in formation. Our time is done for now. Our kind will be with you when you gather in Dallas. Blessings to all of the masters. Be at peace and teach only love.

As he said that, he began to fold back into the light surrounding him and in a few moments, he was gone. Well, that was an interesting visit. I am going back to bed and I'll write this up in the morning.
