

Angel visit February 8, 2023

It was around 3 o'clock in the morning when I woke up to go to the bathroom. I checked to see where the dog was, she wasn't in the house, so I grabbed a smoke and went out on the back porch to see what she was doing. I found her sitting on the back porch. I don't know why, but she was just sitting there, looking around. She came over to me and I gave her a pat on the head. And then something strange happened because her ears perked up and she ran in through the dog door. I said to myself, "What's that all about?" So I finished my smoke and went in the house to see what was going on with her.

As I opened the door to go back in the house, I saw Michael in the office, standing there and surrounded in a ball of light and my pet, Eli was next to him. As soon as I saw Michael, I said, "Well I was wondering when you were going to visit me again. I have a number of things I need to talk to you about."

Michael... Speak what you will. I will give you counseling.

Well, let me start off with my latest and newest concern. I have been getting emails from one of the masters over the years. They are getting their own messages from Michael. Now I've been pretty nice about it and listened to what they have to say, but I don't know if I should pass their messages on since they are not coming directly from you to me. I get their emails and phone calls and I listen out of the kindness of my heart. Some calls are so late at night I don't answer and they leave messages that they had to give me. I'm not going to go into all of the details about this, but if you have a message for me, you come and talk to me, please.

Michael... This is so. I do not use people for messengers when I have something to give you, I come and give it to you.

That's what I said, so I think I'm just going to let this go and be about the work you gave me to do.

As you know, the hotel I was going to use had been sold so I did find a new one. Now, when I sign a contract for a hotel, they tell me what the ballrooms are going to cost if we have 30 rooms a night for the four days. Now if we don't hit those 30 rooms, the price of the ballroom will go up and given the way registration is going it has me worried.

When I put on a conference, I have to figure out what it's going to cost. Then I have to estimate the number attending and see if that will cover the costs. As you know, there is very little income in these conferences. I'm doing this as a service to the masters. I do have a product table where I sell Angelic gates, tuning forks and other things related to the work we're doing. At times with the registration number is low, what is gained from sales at my table is used to cover expenses to put on the conference.

The Children of Light Conference has a reputation of always paying their bills. Now that's good because if we go to book at a different hotel, they call the previous hotels that we used for a reference. We've always received a good report and recommendation from those hotels.

It concerns me that this current registration has been slow. I hope the masters start registering soon so I don't have to worry about this.

Michael... Trust the masters, for they know how important they are to raise the vibrations enough to make something wonderful happen.

Thank you for saying that, I needed a pep talk. OK, then it's full steam ahead. I just needed to get that off my chest, so I really don't have anything else that I really need to talk with you about.

Michael... If there is nothing else you wish to talk about now, I have other work that needs to be done. We will talk again soon. Be at peace and teach only love.

As it has happened so many times before, I watched Michael in the gate, surrounded by a dimming light. I watched the light fold on itself and Michael was gone. Well, I guess I'll get busy writing up this visit and getting it onto the web.

As Michael always says, teach only love,
Joe
